

Name _____

NONFICTION

True information
and facts

An example of
nonfiction writing:

Robots are machines
that can complete
various tasks in many different places.
Robots often use
sensors to collect information.

FICTION

A made-up story from the author's
imagination

An example of
fiction writing:

Teddy the Robot
rolled into his time machine. He pushed
the buttons and
turned the dial to get ready to travel
to the year 3021.
