Directions:

Print and laminate each of the exclamation cards.
As you are reading this cute story aloud to your students, tell them you will need a few "helpers." Each helper will stand in front of the class holding one of the exclamation signs from the story. Give each helper a signal when it is time for each exclamation in the story, and have him/her to hold up the sign to indicate to the class that it's time for them to shout out the exclamation. Your helpers will love their role in leading the others to join in and participate in the story.

This resource also includes a word search for your students!
